

The Greek version of the Peabody Picture Vocabulary Test (PPVT-R) will be administered to measure auditory comprehension at the single word level. This measure has 32 stimulus plates. Participants will be asked to point to the picture out of four that matches the word heard/said by the examiner. Each participant's score is converted to a z-score and percentile taking age and level of education into consideration.